ASA January Newsletter

Maddie's Note:

Welcome to the first monthly ASA newsletter of 2018! In this issue, I'll be recapping the biggest events of this past January. Stay tuned :)

CantoMando

CantoMando gave us an amazing performance on the 27th, enthralling the audience with their humorous and witty act. The three lovely guys behind CantoMando even stayed to participate in festivities afterwards, making it a truly unforgettable experience.

If you were unable to attend, don't worry – ASA has more tricks up its sleeve and endless things to offer, so keep watching for a plethora of exciting events to come!

January 26th. 2018

Pitt x CMU ASA Bowling

It's hard to PIN down exactly what made this collaborative bowling event so great, but I think it's safe to say that everyone was BOWLED over with elation. Members from the two ASA groups were able to meet and become friends through the exhilaration of knocking things over with heavy balls, and what more could you possibly ask for?

I don't know about you, but this event was right up my ALLEY!

Fundraisers

The bubble tea and brownie fundraisers were a success! Keep coming out and supporting us by indulging your sugar cravings; you can even sign up to table by messaging a board member.

Reminders

Finally, some reminders:

- Booth is fully underway, so please come out to open hours to help out! It is incredibly fun and worthwhile, and you definitely don't want to miss out on being a part of it. Here are the open hours:

- Spring retreat is coming up, so get hyped! There are very few spots left, so if you haven't signed up yet, jump on that.
- ECAASU is also coming up! It's an Asian American conference at Cornell, and if you still want to go, there is still a little time to sign up.
- Small groups have been released, so don't forget to hang out with your small group family! This is a great chance to meet new people and make some great friends.

Thanks for reading & stay supa tight,
 Mads
